Volume 9, Edition 1 January 2009

Fellow Good Samaritans & Those Who Want To Be:

Happy New Year. Our very best wishes for 2009 as we continue our quest to serve society and our civilization. Last year was a great year for our foundation, as we initiated several new programs and enhanced existing efforts. We look forward to an even more productive and successful year as we continue our march forward in the 21st Century.

A Message From Our Chairman

January 2009

by Rear Admiral [Ret.] James J. Carey, GCTJ, GMTJ

In his monthly message to us, Admiral Carey talks about his goals, objectives, and hopes for our Good Samaritans of the Knights Templar Foundation for the New Year. He speaks about several new programs that the foundation will be involved in during the coming months and invites each of us to expand our Templar networks not only this month, but throughout the new year and into the future.

Rest in Peace: Major General J. Milnor Roberts, KTKC, GMTJ

A Great American Patriot and Outstanding Knight Templar passes:

The Knights Templar and this foundation lost a truly outstanding American Warrior when Major General J. Milnor Roberts passed away earlier this month. From landing at Normandy on D-Day, the 6th of June, 1944, to his truly outstanding 40 subsequent years of service in Army Uniform, Mil Roberts was a true gentleman, a superb Knight, and a great supporter of this foundation. We have been honored to call him friend and brother and fellow officer. May Our LORD grant him eternal rest. For an outstanding article on the life and history of General Roberts, click here. Good Samaritans "In The Spotlight"

Commander Chip Beck Doing Great Work All Around the World

by MAJOR Mark Hartell

One of our "Knights of State", Navy Commander Chip Beck, has been doing some truly superb work. From his combat artist days in Iraq, to his work with the Iraqi Boy Scouts, to his on-going work today in Africa and all around the globe, Chip Beck is doing all those things that make him an outstanding Templar and a truly GREAT Knight of State.
